

Youth Engagement Specialist

Tri County Community Action (TCCA) is seeking a compassionate and motivated Youth Engagement Specialist to join our Bridges 4 Life Program. This position involves a high degree of responsibility, accountability, and a willingness to work with a diverse population, along with a driving desire to make a difference in the lives of youth.

Are you outgoing, motivated, and up for a challenge?

Can you inspire, educate, and lead while connecting young adults with their families, communities, and other necessary resources?

Here's what being a YOUTH ENGAGEMENT SPECIALIST looks like. You will...

Connect with community organizations, groups, schools, juvenile justice providers, Children and Youth staff, foster care programs, and more for the purpose of recruiting Bridges 4 Life participants.

Implement and facilitate the life skills curriculum using the nationally recognized 'R Rules'

Identify and schedule expert presenters on topics which can enhance and/or are relevant to the life skills curriculum.

Create positive opportunities for participants to engage and connect with their respective community, build skills and resources, and provide activities that strengthen supportive relationships.

Promote family/guardianship engagement and positive decision making.

Connect youth to community service experiences and opportunities.

Track and document participant activities, goals, and outcomes.

Be a change agent for young adults - in this role, you will be making a difference!

And here is what you'll need: High School Diploma or GED and 9 credits towards an advanced degree with at least 3 months of demonstrated experience. Act 33/34 and FBI clearances (upon offer of hire), and a Motor Vehicle Record review (upon offer of hire), along with a valid driver's license, current insurance, and daily access to reliable transportation.

Working a 35-hour week with occasional evenings and weekends required, this position pays a bi-weekly salary that is equivalent to $26,499 annually; with paid sick, vacation, personal, and holidays; and excellent medical benefits.
